same is true with us today. Rom. 5:11.

We must receive the atonement.

It was to be sprinkled with a bunch of hyssop - V. 22. The everlasting covenant of his blood - to benefit and privilege the purchase. Faith is the bunch of hyssop that applies the promises to our lives. The benefits of the blood of Christ layed upon us.

It was to be sprinkled upon the doorposts - denoting the open profession that we are to make of our faith in Christ and our obedience to him.

There is a back way to Hell - but there is no back way to Heaven. The only way to Heaven is this highway. It is to be sprinkled and the side posts - not upon the threshold - V. 7. We are cautioned about trampling under foot the blood of the covenant. Heb. 9:29. It is precious blood and must be precious to us.

The blood, thus sprinkled, preserve the Israelites from the destroying angel. Protect them from the wrath and the curse of the law.

And as they were solemnly eating the lamb - it is our solemn duty in the Gospel. AN EVANgelist - Byr. girl sent Errand - attracted by singing open Air meeting: Leader spoke to about Love of Jesus. Father ask what detained - Told Her not go That way again later another errand Heard more about Jesus, Father enraged - Kicked her, brutal treatment brought her death - Before her death told her Mother - I have prayed for Jesus to save you + Father - Pointed to her dress with blood on - Cut a piece of my dress - Mother did so - Child said Christ died - shedding his Blood for my sake + I'm going to take this to Jesus to show him that I shed my blood for his sake. Died holding to piece Blood stained dress - Testimony [illegible]
