

*New Director
At Radford*

Miss Betty Miles

It is a privilege to introduce to the readers of the Religious Herald our new Director of Student Work at Radford College, Miss Betty Miles of South Norfolk, Virginia. Betty was graduated as an honor student from the South Norfolk High School in 1948, received her Bachelor of Music Education degree from Madison College in 1952 with a major in organ and public school music, and a minor in piano and social science. While in college she served as music chairman, publicity chairman, and president of the Baptist Student Union and was held in high regard by the members of the Harrisonburg Baptist Church as well as by her fellow-students. In 1952 she entered the School of Religious Education at Southwestern Seminary and her first year there served as organist of the Park Temple Baptist Church, Fort Worth. The next year she was Youth Director at West Side Baptist Church in the same city. On the camp-

Church in the same city. On the campus she was music librarian. Betty was a member of the Southwestern Singers who recently toured from Fort Worth to Washington, D. C. and return. In May of this year she received her Master of Religious Education from Southwestern and since that time she has been serving as church secretary of her home church, a position she has filled during several summers.

She begins her work with us next week and will be living in the Baptist Student Center, 418 Tyler Avenue, Radford, Virginia, and pastors, parents, and friends interested in students on the campus where she will be working will please write her at that address.
