MONDAY EVENING at 6 o'clock all Y.W.A. girls are invited to a city-wide Y.W.A. supper at the Spurgeon Memorial Baptist Church. The plates are 25¢. If you are interested, see Sarah M. Rogers.

TUESDAY EVENING is very important for all officers in all the Training Unions. Training Union leaders from other churches in the city will be here to instruct you in your duties in separate simultaneous conferences. We urge that you be here from 7:30 - 8:30 in order that you might better be able to do the task to which you have committed yourself. An Associational Leader will direct the conference for all Leaders, Sponsors, and Counsellors.

DON'T MISS the sermon this evening by the pastor. He will discuss the the beer, wine, and whiskey problem of our day. Should Christians patronize places selling strong drink? (Stores, cafeterias, cafes, filling stations, etc.) What does the Bible say on this subject? What are the brewers attempting to do for our young people?

DEACONS' meeting for 10 minutes after the morning worship in the Berean class room.

Someone said: "Wild Oats need no fertilizer."
