

For Sunday School

Plaza Baptists Eye Doubled Capacity

Hughes

PLAZA—The Rev. Melvin J. Hughes, pastor of Plaza Baptist Church, announced plans this week to nearly double the capacity of the Sunday School.

The announcement came on the fourth anniversary of the pastor's first sermon at the five-year-old church.

Additional buildings will be constructed this year to accommodate over 1,000 in Sunday School. The present enrollment is 1,200 with an average attendance of over 600 on Sunday, according to the Rev. Mr. Hughes. Church membership is currently 600.

Plaza Baptist is a member of the Norfolk Baptist Association and the Southern Baptist Convention, composed of over 11 million members.

The church has four choirs with memberships totalling 135.

The annual operating budget of Plaza Baptist is $52,000 according to the Rev. Mr. Hughes.

Deansgate