CHESAPEAKE CITY COUNCIL:

The Honorable David I. Wynne, Mayor
The Honorable William E. Ward, Vice-Mayor
The Honorable Robert G. Bagley
The Honorable Willa S. Bazemore
The Honorable Walter Cartwright, Jr.
The Honorable Nora W. Davenport
The Honorable Cecil Y. Jenkins
The Honorable Gary W. Markham
The Honorable Lionell Spruill, Sr.

James W. Rein, City Manager

Robert L. Copeland, Director of Intergovernmental Affairs and Master of Ceremonies

A special "thank you" to Mr. H. Bryan Mitchell, Director of the Virginia Division of Historic Landmarks, for awarding the City of Chesapeake the grant which made this survey and nomination possible. Mr. Mitchell and his staff were encouraging and helpful as they guided us through the grant period and the process of having the District placed on the National Register for Historic Places.

Special recognition is given to Mrs. Priscilla Thompson of The History Store, Wilmington, Delaware, who prepared the Chesapeake Reconnaissance Survey and the South Norfolk Historic District Nomination.

Appreciation is extended to the South Norfolk Civic League for providing the complimentary luncheon. You are invited to go directly to the South Norfolk Community Center located at 1217 Godwin Avenue where lunch will be served.
