

Trump CAUGHT China Spy-Reporter Red Handed, Humiliates Her on Live TV

April 7, 2020 Jack Williams 0 Comments Breaking news updates today, Coronavirus, President Trump, Us News, Us politics

Trump CAUGHT China Spy-Reporter Red Handed, Humiliates Her on Live TV. Well, as China seems to have eyes everywhere these days; Trump always on alert.

On Monday, Trump pressed a reporter about whether she was working for the Chinese government after she asked a question about medical supplies that Beijing has provided the United States, according to the DailyCaller.

No one to trust anyone including WHO after damning evidence of how there conspire with China.

The reporter, who said she was with Phoenix TV, a Hong Kong-based outlet sympathetic to Beijing, began her question by noting that the Chinese government and companies like Huawei and Alibaba have donated medical supplies and equipment to the U.S. to handle coronavirus pandemic.

“It’s a statement more than a question,” Trump said after the reporter finished listing off the aid.

President Trump then went on a riff about a massive trade deficit between the U.S. and China that he said, he has addressed during his administration. (RELATED: NYT Allows Chinese Ambassador To Push Propaganda)

The reporter interjected to ask Trump, “Are you cooperating with China?”

President Trump Fires back: “Who are your working for, China?”

Watch Trump Owned her Completely

President Trump asks a reporter "who are you working for, China?"

She says that her company is private and based in Hong Kong. pic.twitter.com/jDNcAIO4Y4

— Daily Caller (@DailyCaller) April 6, 2020