

Why the American People Have Turned Against Biden

Something remarkable is happening in America.

You can see it by looking at the forensic audits happening in Arizona, Georgia and New Hampshire. Many more audits are surely on the way.

Americans are finally seriously questioning the results of the 2020 presidential election. The lightbulb has gone off. Americans are no longer afraid to say out loud that they think the election was stolen

That is why the National Republican Congressional Committee just announced the greatest April fundraising haul ever.

That is why the latest Washington Examiner poll reports enthusiasm for Republican candidates in the 2022 midterm elections is ahead of enthusiasm for Democrats by double digits.

That is why the latest Democracy Corps poll of battleground states finds President Biden's approval among independents at only 34%. Democrats win only 17% of independents in these swing states on a generic ballot.

That is why voters in Pennsylvania (a state that supposedly went to Biden) just overwhelmingly voted to dramatically limit the emergency powers of their Democratic governor.

That is why the latest CBS News/YouGov poll shows Republican support for former President Trump is still at historic levels, with 89% still supporting Trump's economic views, 80% supporting Trump's leadership style, 88% supporting Trump's tough stance on immigration, 73% supporting Trump's views on race, 77% agreeing with the way Trump treated the media and, most importantly, 67% believing Joe Biden is not the legitimate

That is why voters in the latest McLaughlin & Associates poll would favor Donald Trump over Vice President Kamala Harris 49% to 45% for the 2024 presidential election.

Biden has only been president for a little over 100 days. He supposedly got the most votes of any candidate in history. He should be wildly popular right now, considering we're still in the "honeymoon phase" of his presidency. Instead, Americans have turned on him. Why?

First, Americans don't believe Biden is the rightful president. The so-called Silent Majority believes, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that Biden and the Democrats rigged and stole the election.

Second, no one in their right mind believes Biden got the most votes in history. A senile old man who never left his basement got more votes than former Presidents Obama and Clinton? No way.

Third, Americans have seen the radical Biden agenda. It is a communist takeover of the United States, clearly perpetrated by evil globalists who want to destroy America.

But here's the big one...

Americans now understand the intimidation tactics of the radical left. They've seen the vile hate speech toward white Americans. They've seen the mayor of Chicago announce she will only do interviews with journalists who aren't white. They've seen the Black Lives Matter and antifa groups rioting, looting, burning and causing anarchy. They've seen the censorship, banning and hatred inflicted on conservatives by social media and woke corporations. They've seen Palestinian mobs beating Jews in Los Angeles and New York. Radical Democrats have set this nation on fire.

Americans finally see the truth. They now understand what happened in those 60 cases involving voter fraud in the 2020 election. Trump and Republicans didn't lose those 60 cases. That's clearly a lie. That's Soviet communist-level propaganda.

The American people now understand those judges were intimidated. Trump obviously never lost a single voter fraud case. He didn't strike out. Trump never got to the plate. He never took a swing. The Supreme Court never looked at a case.

You've heard of jury nullification. This was simply a case of Trump nullification.

Many of those 60 judges hated Trump's guts and suffered from Trump Derangement Syndrome. But more importantly, the judges feared for their lives and careers.

No judges were willing to risk ruining their lives by overturning the election. No judges were willing to risk assassination or a crazy Democratic mob. No judges were willing to risk their homes being burned to the ground. No judges were willing to risk their spouse being fired and never finding a job ever again. No judges were willing to risk their children being beaten and brutalized at school. No judges were willing to watch their name forever destroyed by cancel culture.

Most Americans now understand the election was stolen and the courts never ruled against the merits of the case -- that this was simply a case of Trump nullification.

We know Biden's not the rightful president. That's why the country has turned against him.
