

STAINED GLASS WINDOW IN MEMORY OF MALCOLM HARRIS PILCHER, (May 20, 1910- March 30, 1935).

MALCOLM H. PILCHER.

Word has been received here of the death of Malcolm Harris Pilcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pilcher, which occurred suddenly on Saturday in Cleveland, Ohio. The funeral services will be held at 4:30 P. M. today from the home of his parents, "Paisley," Chesterfield county, with burial in Blandford cemetery, Petersburg.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
MALCOLM HARRIS PILCHER
1910 ✻ 1935

Special to The News Leader.

PETERSBURG, April 1.—Funeral services for Malcolm H. Pilcher, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pilcher, of "Paisley," near this city, who was killed Saturday night when he fell from a bridge in front of a freight train, will be held here in Blandford cemetery as soon as arrangements are completed. The accident occurred near Cleveland, Ohio.

Young Pilcher, who was widely known here, was a graduate of the Petersburg High school, received his engineer's degree from V. P. I., and his doctor of chemistry degree from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology last June. He was working for his Ph. D. degree and had completed his thesis at the time of his death.

Since last August he has been connected with the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company at Akron, Ohio, as research chemist. He is reported to have been in Cleveland for a week-end visit at the time of his death.

Surviving Malcolm Pilcher and his parents, two brothers, Dr. Fred Pilcher, Jr., and John Mason Pilcher, of the Medical College of Virginia, and one sister, Miss Lucy Pilcher, of this city.

MALCOLM HARRIS PILCHER
"MACKY"

"All Wisdom's armory this man could wield."

"Missile" Reporter; IV-H Civics Club; Baseball Team; History Club; Basketball Squad; Spanish Club; Public Speaking Society; Junior Hi-Y; Treasurer of the February Class.

We all know "Macky's" friendly smile and manner, which cannot be resisted. He has a knack for making and keeping friends which speaks for itself. Gee! but isn't he a shark on mathematics! This seems to be a weak point in most people, but "Macky" is in a class by himself anyway.