THE DAILY WHIG.

Advertisements.

The time has come when we can no longer confer favors upon advertisers. We are compelled to economize by looking at the terms of the paper, viz, at what rate) when the cost will be for advertising. We have therefore concluded to make the following terms our ordinary advertising rates: All marked a square of ten lines.

For one insertion, cash must be paid for in advance or before proof of publication it made. Three rates will be strictly adhered to.

☞ All matter sent by mail to this office is at our risk. Send it in cash paper money whenever practicable. Don't slip two.

TAKE NOTICE.—All advertisements must be paid for in advance, or they will not be published.

☞ Persons sending us money, must not send individual checkpapers. Try to send us money that is current here.

Tuesday Morning, December 30, 1862.

RETALIATION.—While every one greatly deplores the inhuman treatment of the Federal prisoners now in the hands of the Confederacy will appear in the order of President Davis, directing retaliation for the cool-blooded murder of two Confederates recently at Palmyra, Missouri, by order of the base and cowardly wretch McNeil, of the abolition army. McNeil will be arrested and tried by a court martial, and upon his conviction will fall upon the heads of the first ten officers who may be captured by the troops of our trans-Mississippi army. Hard as it may seem, it is the only way by which our government can meet the case. The officers who hold commissions under such a monster, are not entitled to the treatment due to men of his guilty, and, as such, should be held responsible. It may be that the execution of the President's order may be made the pretext for like retaliation. If so, the war will assume a still more horrible character, and the sufferers will be taken. On the part of the South we have been humane, and the world can testify to more barbarities, malignant, and bloody. Our government has too long submitted to their barbarities, and, whatever may be the consequences, will stand justified before God and the civilized world, in the adoption of measures of retaliation and retribution.—Savannah News.

NOTICE.

Headquarters, Department of Miss. and E. La.,
JACKSON, Dec. 27th, 1862.

It is currently reported that many of the postmasters, recently the women and children, should forthwith leave the city of Vicksburg. The Lieutenant General commanding deems it due to the inhabited many have provided themselves during the progress of a battle here, may prove wholly inadequate for the protection of the city. All persons removed will therefore, it will be impracticable to afford the helpless those aids and facilities which they would receive in the city. All the wanderers hereof there will be no delay or embarrassment on the part of this army to leave the city. Transportation will be furnished for the removal of the helpless at least five places of safety outside the city limits. I further to guarantee the safety of the persons and property of those who, in fact, have such persons are hereby notified that their presence will not be allowed under any circumstances within the lines of the troops of this command.

BY TELEGRAPH.

ONLY FOR THE VICKSBURG WHIG.

RICHMOND, Dec. 26.—Major Jasper S. Whiting, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Confederate States army, died in this city Saturday morning.

Resolutions were introduced by Vallandigham in the Yankee Congress, on Monday, which declare that, "This House does most earnestly desire that the most speedy and effectual measures be taken for restoring peace to America, and that no time be lost in proposing an honorable cessation of hostilities, in order to the speedy and final settlement of the unhappy controversy which brought about this unnecessary and inglorious civil war, by adequate security against the return of the calamities in time to come; and this House desires to offer the most earnest assurances to the country that they will, in due time, cheerfully co-operate with the Executive and States for the restoration of the Union, by such explicit and most solemn amendments and provisions as may be found necessary for securing the rights of the several States and sections within the Union under the Constitution.

There is nothing of interest from Fredericksburg to-day. There are rumors which can not be made public, but which will, no doubt, result in success.

Christmas was celebrated with unusual spirit yesterday. There were acts of lawlessness.

Passengers by the Central train, to-night, report the Federals have 4000 to 5000 strong, under Milroy, advancing up the valley. They are reported to have taken the route to Moorefield and Strasburg, avoiding Winchester.

It was reported the enemy were at Front-Royal several days ago, but they are now reported to have reached Woodstock, thirty miles this side of Winchester, in the heart of the Shenandoah valley. Their course is said to have been marked by every species of outrage. The country was laid waste and its inhabitants plundered and maltreated. Their depredations will, no doubt, be promptly checked, and their audacity punished before long.

CHATTANOOGA, Dec. 27.—Parties from Murfreesboro report that Morgan has taken Trenton, Kentucky, and captured 1200 prisoners and a hundred head of cattle, and sent them to Murfreesboro.

Several persons have been or are to be executed in Murfreesboro as spies and deserters.

The New York Tribune says that the Confederate States must be recognized, as there is no chance to whip them. Peace is the only panacea for the present difficulties.

Headquarters Camp of Instruction,
VICKSBURG, Miss., Dec. 23d, 1862.

General Order, No.—,

ALL white male residents of the State of Mississippi, subject between the ages of 18 and 45 are ordered to report immediately at the Camps of Instruction, established at Vicksburg, Jackson, Grenada, Starkville, Meridian, Brandon, Lauderdale, Clarke, Wayne, Green, Perry, Jones, Jasper, Newton, Wilkinson, Oktibbeha, Clairborne, Pinkney and Tippah, will report at the camp located at Enterprise, Clarke county, on the 1st day of January. Other camping regulations under the late "Conscription act" are required to report at the camp, where their status and exact residence of exemption will be ascertained.

"All the laws and regulations applicable to detailed men will be applied to those exempted as far as equire to the place of rendezvous for enrollment, or to the camp of instruction.

All persons from other States now included in the Conscription act, the order of the Secretary of War.

RAILROAD LANDS FOR SALE.

I HAVE for sale a number of tracts of land, lying on the line of the Southern Railroad Company, for a distance of 20 miles from Vicksburg, in the State of Mississippi. The land is of the best quality for cotton and corn. The tracts are located in a remarkably healthy country, generally well timbered and well watered, and convenient to the Railroad.
There are many advantages to be enjoyed from its PLANTERS ANXIOUS TO MOVE THEIR FAMILIES AND NEGROES FROM EXPOSED LOCALITIES TO A DESIRABLE PLACE OF SECURITY.
Prices from $2 to $10 an acre, according to quality and location.
Terms: One-fourth to be paid in cash, the balance in three annual payments, with interest at 10 per cent., secured by a lien on the property.
Apply to M. Kennedy, V. P., at the office of the Southern Railroad Company, Jackson, or Thomas Bayley, at Messrs. Mellen & Lott's, Sandidge's Depot, Miss.
Letters of inquiry addressed to either of the above named gentlemen, will receive prompt attention.
